IMPORTANT DISCLAIMER:

All information generated by Nuvix's Artificial Intelligence Analysis System (the "Service") is provided strictly for educational and informational purposes. The Service generates algorithmic evaluations of market data, trading patterns, and casino games, but it does not generate trading or betting signals that should be considered as recommendations or actionable advice.

Risk Warning: The use of the Service involves significant risk. Past evaluations do not guarantee future performance or profits in Forex, stocks, futures, synthetic indices, binary options, crypto assets, roulette, baccarat, or other casino games. Nuvix makes no guarantees, explicit or implied, regarding the accuracy, completeness, or suitability of any analysis. Your decisions and results depend entirely on your own judgment, risk tolerance, effort, and the current conditions of the market or the game.

No Affiliation: Nuvix is not affiliated with, endorsed by, or associated with any trading platform, broker, exchange, or casino operator. You are solely responsible for selecting, accessing, and using any platform for your trading or gaming activities.

Limitation of Liability: By using the Service, you acknowledge and accept that Nuvix and its affiliates will not be liable for any loss, damage, or claim arising from the use of AI-generated analysis. Always conduct your own research and consult with qualified professionals before engaging in trading or betting. Trading and gambling can result in significant financial losses.
